A. M. E. CONFERENCE

Meets in Annual Session in Emmanuel Church.

The Virginia Conference of the African Methodist Episcopal Church opened yesterday morning in the Emmanuel A. M. E. Church, North street, Portsmouth. It brings to this part of the State representative colored ministers from all parts of the State and many from various parts of the country.

The conference is presided over by Bishop James A. Handy, of Ohio. When he took up the work of the Gospel ministry among the first charges he held was the one where he is now holding conference.

The conference was called to order by Bishop Handy, Rev. D. J. Beckett made the opening prayer and the bishop read the Scripture lesson, which he commented on. Rev. Dr. E. H. Bolden, of Portsmouth, delivered the annual sermon to the ministers, in which he outlined the work of the past year. In speaking of the conference, he said that it was a historical year for it, and an important session. He spoke of the early ministry of Bishop Handy with the church, thirty-four years ago, as a deacon, and now returning as a bishop. His text was: "The Lord Hath Done Great Things For Us; Whereof We Are Glad." His sermon was practical and full of good advice to the ministers.

After the sermon, Holy Communion was administered by the bishop, who was assisted by general officers and presiding elders.

Rev. A. L. Gaines, H. B. D., pastor of the church, delivered an address of welcome to the bishop, members of the conference and visitors. Rev. Mr. Butts, the presiding elder, also delivered an address of welcome, as did Wm. M. Reid, a young negro lawyer.

Rev. W. R. Gulliver responded to the address. In a short and appropriate address he accepted the words of welcome coming from the members of the conference, and assured them that he considered it an honor to stand before the conference as their representative.

The conference was duly organized by the following officers being elected after roll-call: Rev. C. A. Holmes, Richmond, chief secretary; A. J. Nottingham, recording secretary; Rev. J. B. Yones, statistician; Revs. L. Sears, I. York, Ed. Hardy, J. W. Miller, marshals. Rev. Holes has served as secretary for the past six years, and is one of the leading young men in the connection.

The following visitors were introduced: Revs. M. M. Moore, D. D. Washington, D. C., financial secretary; T. W. Henderson, D. D., Philadelphia, general business manager; P. A. Hubbard, D. D., Denver, Colo.; N. J. McCracken, D. D., Chicago, Ill., and Prof. J. R. Hawkins, A. M., Kittrell, N. C., secretary of education.

The afternoon session was spent in hearing reports of pastors and taking their contributions to the general funds. Last night the church was crowded to hear the missionary sermon by Rev. D. J. Beckett.

Stokes-Winslow.
A very pretty marriage was celebrated at the Court Street Presbyterian Church yesterday afternoon, the contracting parties being Miss Annie Revel Stokes, daughter of Mr. W. H. Stokes, to Mr. James Harlan Winslow. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. B. Engleston, the pastor. The bride wore a brown travelling suit of Venetian cloth. She was accompanied by Miss Zoe May Hyde, of Baltimore, who acted as maid of honor, and wore a steel gray cashmere, with hat and gloves to match. Mr. Lucien D. McCracken acted as best man, while Messrs. C. C. Graves, Victor Boatwright, Carroll F. Bennett and C. A. Parker officiated as ushers.

After the ceremony the party was driven to the Bay Line wharf, where they took the steamer for Baltimore. On their arrival this morning in that city they will proceed to the residence of Mrs. E. L. Hyde, No. 100 East North avenue, where a wedding breakfast will be served.

Mr. and Mrs. Winslow received quite a number of presents, including a handsome couch from his brother-in-law at the Seaboard Air Line office, and from the teachers and scholars of the Presbyterian Sunday school.

BARRETT-LEE.
The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Barrett, No. 624 Washington street, was a scene of beauty last night, the occasion being the marriage of their daughter, Miss Loretta J. Barrett, to Mr. William C. Lee, a well-known and popular young man. The ceremony was performed by Rev. L. B. Betty, of Monmouth, N. J., in the presence of a large number of invited guests. The rooms were tastefully decorated with cut flowers and potted plants. After the wedding a reception followed and many were the good wishes bestowed upon the newly married couple.

RASBERY-WILSON.
A beautiful home wedding was celebrated last evening at the residence of Mr. H. H. Rasbery, High street, second avenue. The contracting parties being Mrs. Mary Rasbery, daughter of Mr. Henry Dray, and Mr. John W. Wilson, a highly respected citizen and business man of Richmond.

The nuptials were celebrated according to the ritual of the Methodist Church, Rev. R. T. Waterfield officiating. The bride was becomingly attired in travelling costume with a bunch of bride's roses in her hand.

The parlors were tastefully decorated with potted plants and a variety of flowers. After the ceremony the bridal party took the Norfolk and Western train for their future home, in Richmond.

GASKINS-PENDER.
Miss Belle Virginia Gaskins and Mr. William J. Pender were married at 8 p. m. last night at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. A. M. Gaskins, corner Cook and Ann streets, Park View. Dr. Fisher officiated. The bride was attired in robin-egg blue and pink brocade, with hat and gloves to match. She carried a shower bouquet of pink carnations, tied with pink satin ribbon. The room was tastefully decorated with palms, ferns and white cut flowers. A reception followed, which lasted from 8:30 to 12 p. m. The numerous presents are both useful and ornamental.

BASSETT-DAVIS.
At Deep Creek yesterday afternoon Mr. W. Henry Bassett and Miss Mary Fletcher Davis were made man and wife in the presence of many friends of the contracting parties. Rev. E. C. Davis, a brother of the bride, of Philadelphia, tied the nuptial knot. The bridesmaids were Miss Sue Lumpkin, of Middlesex county, and Miss Alice Reed. The groomsmen were Major Henry Bernard and Mr. Willie Grant. Miss Blanche Culpepper presided at the organ.

CLARK-NOCK.

Milton Nock, a brother of the bride, and Mr. Judson G. Jenkins. The Misses Gilder-sleeve were the flower girls. Mr. and Mrs. Clark arrived here at 7:30 o'clock last night and were warmly welcomed.

ODD FELLOWS ANNIVERSARY.
Last night the three Odd Fellows lodges in this city jointly celebrated the eightieth anniversary of Odd Fellowship in America at Rosenbaum's Hall. A large number assembled to hear the principal address of the evening by Mr. John A. McDonald, who spoke in a very eloquent and impressive manner, fully sustaining his reputation as an able and interesting speaker.

A literary treat, in the shape of a recitation or reading, was enjoyed. Mr. George A. G. Scott delivering a selection "On the Sabbath," which was grand in the highest sense of the term. The assembly then repaired to Odd Fellows' Hall, on Middle street, where the ladies of Owens Memorial M. E. Church had prepared an elegant banquet, which was very much enjoyed. After cigars had been smoked Mr. W. H. Fairless responded to the toast, "F. L. and T. G. the Hooks of Steel which Bind us Together," in a manner which brought forth generous and well merited applause.

Captain Charles T. Bland responded to the toast, "Woman," after which the closing ode was sung and all departed for their homes feeling that Odd Fellowship had lost no friends by reason of the celebration.

PINNER'S POINT LIQUOR LICENSES.
Judge Portlock announced yesterday that no licenses would be granted for the sale of liquor at Pinner's Point other than to regular hotels; that such hotels must be at least as large as the Hotel Frederick, and that the persons serving at the bar should be only such persons as would be given lodgings in the place. The Judge was very emphatic in stating that no licenses would be granted there for the sale of liquor to colored persons.

MET WITH AN ACCIDENT.
Tuesday afternoon Mr. A. W. Moore, a huckster in the market, was at work around his stall. In standing upon a piece of plank to reach something it slipped, precipitating him to the ground, his side striking a box, injuring him quite badly. He was attended by Dr. Hope. Yesterday he came to the market, but was compelled to return home on account of pain. Fortunately for him, no bones were broken.

NORFOLK VS. PORTSMOUTH.

The Junior baseball team of the local Y. M. C. A. played their first public game yesterday afternoon with the Portsmouth Y. M. C. A. team, and won their first victory. Physical Director Ward was well pleased with the fine showing the boys made. The game was extremely interesting, and was witnessed by quite a large audience. Carney and Cross were the Portsmouth batters, and Shafer and Hodgson for Norfolk. The Norfolk boys scored 15 points to Portsmouth's 11.

WASHINGTON, D. C.; NEW YORK, 2.

Washington, D. C., April 26.—The game to-day was called at the beginning of the third inning on account of rain. The score then stood 2 to 0 in favor of New York, errors by Cassidy, the new third baseman, being responsible for them. McFarland, the new pitcher, was in the box for the local team.

PHILADELPHIA, 3; BOSTON, 9.

Philadelphia, Pa., April 26.—Boston won to-day's game in the first inning. Wheeler gave two bases on balls and was hit for a single and a double, netting the Champions five runs. Willis was a puzzle to the Phillies, their seven hits being scattered. Attendance, 3,466.

RICH COPPER MINES.

RESUMPTION OF WORK IN ABANDONED MINE AT SANTIAGO.

(By Telegram to Virginian-Pilot.)
Santiago, April 26.—El Cobre, one of the richest copper mines in the world, will probably resume mining operations at an early date. A meeting of the stockholders of the mine and railway leading to it will be held in Havana May 15th, to consider a proposition made by a British syndicate. If the result is favorable, it will mean a great stimulus to industry in this province. Thirty-one years have passed since mining operations there were discontinued, owing to a difference between the company and the Government regarding terms.

IMMUNES WILL LEAVE.

Various detachments of the Ninth Immune regiment arrived here to-day from posts in the interior, and will leave to-morrow for the United States on the transport Meade.

DREYFUS REVISION.

STARTLING TESTIMONY PUBLISHED IN THE PARIS FIGARO.

(By Telegram to Virginian-Pilot.)
Paris, April 26.—The advocates and opponents of Dreyfus revision held rival meetings in Paris this evening, and fights occurred afterward in the streets.

Several persons were injured. The Figaro's publication of the evidence of Captain Cuignet before the Court of Cassation has thrown the anti-revision party into consternation.

The Esprit and all the anti-Dreyfus papers are boiling with indignation. Several of them suppress altogether the testimony of this officer, whose principal statement was that the guilt of Dreyfus could be only inferentially established from the secret dossier.

The Gaulois falls foul of the Figaro for its "infamous publication."

The Esprit denounces Captain Cuignet in measured terms.

Captain Cuignet's denunciation of Colonel Du Paty de Clam as a forger is held to be a complete giving away of the case of the general staff. The only possible explanation for it seems to be that Cuignet, acting under duress, is making Du Paty de Clam a scapegoat for the staff.

The Lancaster Frauds.

(By Telegram to Virginian-Pilot.)

Lancaster, Pa., April 26.—W. L. Kendig, one of the principals in the extensive counterfeiting of revenue stamps, went to Philadelphia this morning, and prior to his departure, in speaking of the alleged connection of former United States District Attorney Ingham and his law partner, ex-Assistant United States District Attorney Newitt, with the scheme, said the last bribe money paid out was to those two, and that the amount was $3,000.

BERKLEY.

Mr. Silas P. Ferree and Miss Olla C. Covie were married last evening at 9 o'clock at the residence of Mr. J. P. Davis, on Berkley avenue, Rev. H. S. Lancaster, rector of St. Thomas P. E. Church, conducting the ceremony. The parlors were beautifully decorated with potted plants and cut flowers and brilliantly lighted. It was a secret wedding and the guests were few but witness the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Ferree will reside in Berkley at present.

THE CARNIVAL.

A large audience attended the Carnival again last night and witnessed an interesting program. The girls were attired in white dresses which, together with their sweet smiles, lent attractiveness to the occasion. The ladies in charge of the booths were kept busy passing out trinkets of merchandise, and the managers of the ice cream saloon took in a snug little sum of money. Following was the program for the evening:

Instrumental Solo Mr. Chas. Heard
Vocal Solo Mrs. Snow
Statuary.
Vocal Solo Miss Loreman
Statuary.
Vocal Solo Miss Addie Heath.

Prof. Ward, of the Y. M. C. A., will be over to-night with his calisthenics class, and all who avail themselves of the opportunity of seeing the exhibition will be amply repaid for their visit.

PERSONALS.

Miss French Lowry will leave this afternoon to visit friends in Brooklyn, N. Y., and Miss Rosa Ethered will accompany her to New York City, where she will spend several days with Mrs. Cuskey, of that city.
